

Cooking Teams Needed!

For the 3rd Annual Cooks for Books

March 23, 2012

11:30am-1:00pm

First United Methodist Church

GATHER A FEW FRIENDS, FAMILY MEMBERS OR CO-WORKERS AND START PLANNING YOUR RECIPE!

Cooks for Books is a cook-off with a storybook theme. All proceeds from Cooks for Books will go to Jackson County's Dolly Parton's Imagination Library Program. Imagination Library is a FREE program that allows ALL registered children in Jackson County to receive a FREE book every month from birth to 5 years of age. At this event, your cooking team can help us raise funds to continue this program and promote early literacy.

For more information on Imagination Library visit www.greatstartjackson.org and click on Imagination Library.

TO PARTICIPATE:

- Teams of cooks will develop a theme for their recipe based on a children's book title. (For example, BOOK: Three Little Pigs; RECIPE: Three Little Pigs in a Blanket.)
- Cooking Teams will prepare their favorite recipe for about 150 people to sample and vote on.
- Teams must provide their own ingredients and themed table decorations.
- Sample sized cups/containers, napkins and one 8ft. covered table will be provided.
- Recruit friends, family and coworkers to attend and vote for your recipe. The winning team will receive a gift package.
- Voting containers will be located at each table and the public will cast votes for their favorite team of cooks. Attendees pay $5 to sample and get one vote. Additional votes are $1 each.
- Costumes that complement the theme are encouraged!

There is NO COST to sign up.
